Ursula K. Le Guin - Why We Read Books

Ursula K. Le Guin (1929-2018) was amongst the greatest speculative fiction writers of all time. In the 1960's (at a time when most of her counterparts were men writing from a masculine point of view) she founded her own genre, one of stories more attuned to humanity's part in nature and the universe.

“We read books to find out who _____”
